INSPECTORS LOOKING UP CLEWS ON THE BLACKMAILERS

Postoffice Inspector Ralph Smith came up from Salt Lake this morning and will remain in the city during the day.

Inspectors Frank Fitch and Smith have been detailed by the government to handle the local blackmail cases and they will spend much of their time in Ogden until the matter is cleared up.

Mr. Smith says that there are no new developments in the cases and that it will likely be some time before there will be anything to give to the public.

"We are working on a number of promising clews," he said, "but it will be some time before we arrive at definite conclusions. We expect to run down all of the blackmailers and bring them to trial."

NEW CLERK IN COUNTY

BY DYE

County Clerk Samuel G. Dye will appoint W. D. Clegg deputy clerk to fill the vacancy occasioned by the election of deputy clerk A. F. Larson to the position of city auditor, and on next Monday he will send the name to the board of county commissioners for confirmation. The appointment will be confirmed and Mr. Clegg will assume the duties of the office in the early part of January.

Mr. Clegg is a married man and has been a resident of Ogden a number of years. He is now acting as clerk in the joint Harman freight office, and is considered an able man. It was not until today that Mr. Clegg decided to accept the position.

MEMBERS OF POLICE FORCE HAVE THEIR PAY INCREASED

Serving nicely as a Christmas present, the salaries of Jailer Hagbert Anderson, Desk Sergeant Walter Wilson and Guard Theodor Lever were raised this morning by the city board of commissioners, at the suggestion of Chief of Police W. I. Norton, the increased salary to begin the first of the year. Mr. Anderson's salary was raised from $55 to $75; Mr. Wilson's from $75 to $85, and Mr. Lever's from $60 to $85 a month.

Commissioner J. C. Nye reported that the description of a certain piece of land at Five Points donated to the city by Senator Reed Smoot for park purposes is erroneous in that it covers about 100 feet of land owned by the Lynne ecclesiastical ward of the Mormon church and he recommended that the correction be made by giving the church a quit claim deed to the land. The board concurred in Mr. Nye's recommendation and the recorder was instructed to have the quit claim deed made.

Senator Smoot donated this land to the city about two years ago for park purposes, but as yet the city has taken no steps to improve it. The land is a small triangular strip between Washington avenue and the Harrisville Road, immediately north of the Five Points drug store.

R. Douglass, on account of ill health tendered his resignation as city editor and it was accepted by the board with thanks to Mr. Douglass for his efficient services during his long term in the office.

The recorder was instructed to call for bids from the city papers for next year's legal printing. By resolution, it was provided, before adjournment, that the next meeting of the board be held on Friday, tomorrow being a holiday.

WOUNDED BURGLAR IS BROUGHT HERE FOR SURGICAL AID

Charles Johnson, who was shot in the arm a few nights ago when he attempted to get away from the city marshal who had discovered him in the act of burglarizing a house in Brigham City, was brought to Ogden yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff John Zundell for medical treatment. He was placed in the county jail and will be taken to the Dea hospital.

The officer shot Johnson through the left arm immediately above the elbow, badly shattering the bone. It was planned to have the X-ray placed on the arm while the man was at the city jail, but when physicians examined the wound it was decided to take the man to the hospital for treatment without delay.

Johnson is said to be a desperate fellow who made a hard fight against the officers when he was discovered burglarizing a house in Brigham.

TWO HUNDRED LITTLE ONES MADE HAPPY
BY SANTA CLAUS

Nearly 200 happy children gathered at the National Guard armory on Twenty-fourth street this afternoon and received gifts from Santa Claus.

The affair was arranged by the Salvation Army under the direction of Ensign Clement. The children were seated in the body of the hall and on the platform were three large Christmas trees, brilliantly decorated with candles and tinsel. On the branches of each tree were hung toys of all kinds and at the foot of the trees were small wagons, sleds, and pieces of miniature furniture. Several large boxes containing parcels were also placed on the platform and each parcel was tagged with the name and age of the child to whom its contents would make an appropriate gift.

Most of the children had tickets, which entitled them to a share in the bounty of Santa Claus, but there was also a number of toys and bags of candy for other children present who had not been given tickets.

In addition to the toys, books, stockings and mittens, each child received a large bag of candy and nuts.

Ensign Clement said that he desired to thank the merchants and the general public for the assistance given the Army in this charitable work and said that, in addition to the party for the children today, the Army had arranged to send out fifty dinner baskets to poor families tomorrow.

He expressed appreciation of the assistance given him by the ladies of the corp.
